

The David Oberman Annual Memorial Lecture Series

WOMEN IN THE BIBLE

A collection of discussions on the various female personalities in the Bible that will heighten our appreciation of the roles women played that are oftentimes omitted from the Jewish canon. Class led by Neal Schnall.

Join us for this 2-part series:

SUNDAYS FROM 10 AM—11:30 AM
March 3rd and March 10th*

A light breakfast will be served.

Neal Schnall, a beloved friend of the late David Oberman, has been a dedicated Jewish educator in Los Angeles for nearly 40 years and has taught many adult courses, including but not limited to Jewish history, Hebrew, General Judaica, and adult b'nai mitzah. In 2000, Neal was recognized as educator of the year through the Los Angeles Bureau of Jewish Education.

This program is sponsored by The David Oberman Memorial Lecture Fund and is offered free of charge to congregants and friends of Kehillat Ma'arav. David Oberman loved to learn; he loved to share what he learned. Kehillat Ma'arav was vital to him. He passed away in September 2021 and this lecture series is an ongoing, living tribute to our beloved synagogue member, made possible by a generous gift from his mother, Deedy, and his wife, Susan.

*More dates to be announced this spring.
